5 Migun Principles

- Chiropractic: Restores structural integrity and relieves nerve interference by restoring vertebrae alignment with its patented technology.
- Far-Infrared: Increases function of tissue cells and enhances blood circulation.
- Acupuncture: Stimulates specific points of the body to recharge life force and bring proper balance.
- Acupressure: Temporarily blocks the circulation of Qi and the release jump starts the Qi movement to flush out the toxins.
- Massage: May ease chronic pain, speed recovery from sports injuries, and make your muscles more agile.

Exercising Effects

The far infrared rays help to flush out toxins from the lymph areas and from the largest organ of elimination, the skin, and restores a healthy body. It also provides therapeutic heat deep into the tissues, resulting in better blood circulation.
